

Publishers and funders for Open Access in Finland

Seminar on May 24, 2016 in the House of Science and Letters (Kirkkokatu 6, Helsinki)

Programme:

- 9:30–10 Registration & coffee
- 10–10:20 Opening words • Sami Niinimäki, Senior Advisor, Ministry of Education and Culture
- 10:20–11 Keynote: Open Access in HSS – Books and Journals. The next step for Knowledge Unlatched?
• Dr. Sven Fund, Managing Director, fullstopp GmbH
- 11–11:10 Questions from the audience
- 11:10–12 Comments:
- Kotilava – Academic journals towards open access in Finland • Riitta Koikkalainen, Information specialist, The National Library of Finland
 - Perspectives of a private research funder • Kalle Korhonen, Head of research affairs, Kone Foundation
 - Publisher’s comment • Pekka Nygren, Board member, Finnish association for scholarly publishing
 - Views of libraries on OA scholarly publishing • Annikki Roos, Director of Access Services, Helsinki University Library
 - Open monographs • Niklas Alén, Project co-ordinator, Finnish Literature Society, SKS
- 12–13 Lunch
- 13–15 Workshops
- Books, journals and international consortia; moderated by Sven Fund
 - Research funding and OA; moderated by Kalle Korhonen
 - Finnish scholarly journals as a channel for publishing in research organizations; moderated by Ilkka Väänänen, Research director, Lahti University of Applied Sciences and Johanna Vuorelma, researcher in the Department of Politics and International Studies, University of Warwick & editor-in-chief, politiikasta.fi
- 15–16 Wrap up
- 16–16.05 Closing

The day will be facilitated by Jyrki Ilva, Information system specialist, The National Library of Finland.

The language of the presentations and discussions during the forenoon and the work group moderated by mr. Fund shall be English; the other two groups in the afternoon will work in Finnish yet the results will be reported in English. Free entrance, register here.

The seminar is produced by Kotilava.